with refce to sl. 1 states that the Dy Commrs of Dists may be consulted in the matter and a report submitted to Govt.

No. 1312 dated 16th Dec 1924, from the Regr. J.S.

Forwarded the opinions of the Dy Comrs regarding their appointment as Ex-officio Asst Registrs of Joint Stock Companies, and requests that, in the circumstances stated, the Dt. Registrars may be appointed as Ex-officio Registrars of J.S. Companies and that he may be permitted to arrange for the inspection of the Companies in the Bangalore city.

2) All the Dy Comrs except the Dy Comrs of Bangalore and Chikmagalur Dts have no objection to be appointed as Ex officio Asst Regrs of J.S Cos. The Regr. states that the objections raised by the latter are untenable for reasons mentioned by him.

The proposal of the Regr is for orders.

Submitted with reference to the orders of the First Member in para 1 of the notes.

10) I should like to get from him a note on the points raised by Mr Chatterjee in his letter

What are the functions which an Assistant Registrar appointed under Sec 248(1) (or any other section of the Act) is empowered to perform in the absence of the Registrar. Please note on these points & mention the sections relating to them

29/1.25

11) Draw his attention to the Rules framed under the Act

12) A copy of the Regulations is enclosed.

31/1/25 The Dep. Comm's contention is (1) that under the existing powers of the Regr, even if Asst Regrs are appointed under Sec 248 (1), they can only attend to the registration of Companies, and not to any other work of the office (for instance incorporation of J.S. Companies under Rule 7 of the Rules issued under Sec 248(1) with Notification d. 12th May 1919 (Flag E.) He refers to the definition of the term 'Registration' in sec 2(15) of the Regn & says that the duties to be performed in only one of registration of Companies.

In this connection it may be stated that the Registrar, though primarily appointed for the work of registering Companies has incidental

Serial No

The Regn provides for such duties to be performed by the Registrar

Duties of inspection etc attached to the Asst Rs in the definition clause, the term registrar includes an Asst Regr, it would appear that the latter, appointed as such by Govt under Sec 248-(1) can exercise all the powers of the Regr, provided in the Regulation in his respective jurisdiction.

Kind reference is also invited to Sec 248 (4) of the Regn, which provides for Govt authorising some person other than the Regr of J.S. Companies to perform the duties of the latter, as enjoined by the Regn.

The law need not be amended, to entrust Asst Regrs with inspection work as enjoined by the Dy Com, Chitaldrug.

WD 1/2

15) The contention of the Deputy Commissioner is that under Section 248 (1) Asst Registrars may be appointed mainly for the registration of companies & not for the purpose of inspecting them & that the functions of Asst Registrars have to be restricted only to the inspection of Companies with reference to specified points the Regulation itself may require due amendment. (vide para 2 of S. & D)

NOTE—Contn. Sheet

Serial No

The Contention seems to be untenable

Section 248 (1) enables the Govt to appoint Registrars & asst Regrs as it thinks necessary for the registration of companies under this Regn, & (6) to make rules with respect to their duties

These two functions are distinct & severable, for 'duties' in (6) are not restricted to duties connected with the registration of companies. According to that interpretation of Sec 248 (1), the Govt may appoint any person as Asst Registrar & assign to him any duty imposed on an Asst Registrar by rules framed on this behalf, i.e. duty of inspection of registered offices under Rule 7

It is not incumbent on Govt to appoint Asst Regrs mainly for the purpose of registration of Companies. It is for this reason, I think, that the Govt of Bombay have appointed two Registrars for prosecuting defaulting Companies

The question on which my opinion has been ask is whether the deputation of an officer or a clerk by the Registrar for inspecting the offices of Companies is permissible under the Regulation. Under ~~Rule~~ Clause 7 of the Regulations issued by Governme under Section 248 of the Regulation the Registrar shall institute such inquiries and investigations at the offices of registered Companies or otherwis as shall be necessary to obtain information or evidence respecting defaults or respecting any infractions of the law, made by such companies in complying with any of the provisions of the Regula tion. In the absence of any specific mention he is bound to conduct the enquiry or investigate himself and this duty cannot be delegated to any body else. It is apparently to avoid this diffi culty that in the rules framed in 1897 it was specifically provided in Rule VII that the Registrar could ascertain either by himself personall or by deputing one of his clerks whether the provisions of certain sections are duly observed. Similar provisions will have to be made in the rul now in force by suitable modification that the Registrar may either by himself or by deputing one of his subordinates ~~to~~ institute enquiries.

Unless such a rule is made, Registrar can delegate his function to his office Assistant or his Head clerk

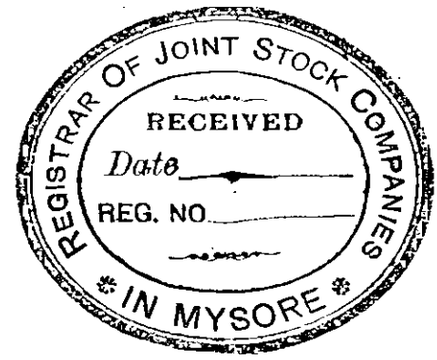
REGULATIONS UNDER THE INDIAN COMPANIES ACT.



NOTIFICATION.

Ootacamund, June 6, 1916.

No. 518.—His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following regulations under section 248 (2), (4) and (5) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 :—

Regulations under section 248 (2), (4) and (5) of the Indian Companies Act.

1. Definition.—In these regulations (a) "the Act" means the Indian Companies Act, 1913 and sections wherever quoted refer to sections of that Act; (b) the expression "Registrar" does not include "Assistant Registrar."

2 Powers of the Registrar and Assistant Registrar.—The Registrar may authorise his Assistant to register any company which is registrable by any other Assistant Registrar or any document registrable by the Registrar.

3. The Personal Assistant to the Inspector-General of Registration, who is an ex-officio Assistant Registrar of the Joint Stock Companies, shall, during the absence of the Assistant to the Registrar, exercise all the functions assigned to the Assistant.

4. All Assistant Registrars shall be subordinate to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies who shall exercise a general supervision over all the offices established for the registration of companies.

5. Registration of companies and documents.—Documents filed under section 277 of the Act shall be registered in the Office of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, Madras.

6. (a) When a company which would ordinarily be registrable by an Assistant Registrar outside Madras City is registered by the Registrar, the records of the company so registered shall be transferred to the Assistant Registrar in whose jurisdiction the registered office of the company is situate and an intimation thereof shall be given to the company.

(b) The office of the Assistant Registrar to whom the records are so transferred shall be the office to which the company shall forward its subsequent records.

7. The certificate of incorporation granted under section 23 of the Act shall be in Form 1 and a copy of such certificate shall be entered upon the Memorandum of Association of the company concerned, or where there is no space on the memorandum for such entry, shall be attached to it.

8. (a) On every document registered, recorded or filed there shall be endorsed the following particulars:—

(i) The number borne by the company on the register (regulation 10).
(ii) The name of the company.
(iii) The name of the document.
(iv) The serial number of the document.
(v) The date of registration, recording or filing; and the Registrar or Assistant Registrar shall affix his signature and the seal of his office thereto.

(b) If there is no space on the document for entering the particulars referred to in clause (a) the entries shall be made on a separate paper which shall be attached to the document and a note of the fact shall be made on the document itself and signed by the Registrar or Assistant Registrar.

9. When a document is registered, recorded or filed, the Registrar or Assistant Registrar shall give intimation of the same to the company in Form 2.

10. Register of companies and index.—(a) There shall be maintained in each office a "Register of Companies" in Form 3 in which shall be entered the names of the registered companies in the order of their registration. Each company shall be assigned a number in a consecutive series commencing and terminating with each official year. In the pages allotted to each company shall be entered a note of every registration effected or document filed or record made relating to the company and the Registrar or Assistant Registrar shall affix his signature to each note. The register shall contain such other particulars as may from time to time be prescribed by the Registrar.

(b) A similar register shall be maintained in respect of companies established outside British India which file documents under section 277 of the Act.

(c) An alphabetical index shall be maintained of the companies entered in the registers.

11. Receipt for and account of fees and documents.—A receipt in Form 4 shall be granted for all fees paid.

12. An account of fees shall be maintained in each office.

13. Audit of receipts and documents.—The receipts of fees and of documents in the offices of the several Assistant Registrars shall be checked periodically by the Registrar or under his directions by his Assistant.

14. Enforcement of penal provisions.—Whenever it is found necessary to enforce the penal provisions of the Act against any company the Registrar or Assistant Registrar, as the case may be, shall request the Government Solicitor if the registered office of the company in default is situated in Madras, or in other cases the Magistrate of the district in which the registered office of the company is situated to take the necessary steps.

15. Seal.—Every certificate or copy granted under the provisions of the Act shall in addition to being signed and dated by the Registrar or Assistant Registrar bear his seal.

16. The seal to be used shall bear the words $\frac{\text{Registrar}}{\text{Assistant Registrar}}$ of Joint Stock Companies, $\frac{\text{Madras.}}{\text{name of district.}}$

17. Fees.—The following fees shall be charged for the inspection of documents and the grant of certificates of incorporation and of certified copies or extracts of documents—

	Rs.	A.	P.
(1) An inspection of one or more of the documents relating to a single company	1	0	0
(2) Certificate of incorporation of any company	3	0	0
(3) Certified copy or extract of any specified document or any part of such document for every 100 words or fractional part thereof	0	6	0

Note.—Where application is made for a certified copy and a printed form is supplied by the applicant for the preparation of such copy, only the portion added in manuscript in the certified copy shall be charged for at the ordinary rates for copying and in addition a fixed fee of six annas shall be levied for comparing and certifying each copy where the total number of words including printed matter exceeds 100.

18. A person applying for inspection of documents shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be allowed to inspect under the supervision of the Registrar or Assistant Registrar but he shall not be permitted to take a copy of any record inspected.

19. Inspection of registered office of companies.—(a) The offices of companies situated at the headquarter stations of the Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies or of Sub-Registrars of Assurances shall be visited by the Assistant Registrar or under his direction by a Sub-Registrar of Assurances for the purpose of seeing that the provisions of sections 72, 73 and 136 of the Act have been complied with. In the case of companies whose registered offices are situated in outlying villages information regarding compliance with those provisions shall be obtained by the Assistant Registrar from the District Magistrate. A list of the registered offices of the companies in outlying villages shall, for this purpose, be forwarded annually to the Magistrate of each district by the Assistant Registrar showing therein which companies should be visited twice during the year in order to ascertain that the provisions of section 136 of the Act have been complied with. The District Magistrate shall also be informed from time to time of any alteration to be made in the list.

(b) The Registrar shall arrange for similar visits to the offices of companies situated in Madras City.

20. Administration report.—The Registrar shall submit to Government so as to reach them on or before the 1st of June in each year a report on the working of the Indian Companies Act during the official year ending the 31st March preceding.

21. Preservation and destruction of records.—The documents of each company shall be placed together and kept distinct from those of other companies.

22. (a) The register of companies (Regulation 10), the register of mortgages and the index thereto (sections 112 and 113) and documents and correspondence filed with them under the Act shall be preserved permanently.

(b) All other records shall be preserved in such manner and for such period as the Registrar may, from time to time, direct.

23. Forms.— The forms in the appendix or forms as near thereto as circumstances require shall be used in all matters to which the forms relate.

With reference to paragraph 9 of G.O. No.I.C.1189-90-I&C. 468-24-3 dated 7th July 1925 directing that it is essential that more attention should be paid by the Registrar to the inspection of companies, I have the honour to state as follows:

(1) According to Rule VII (quoted on the margin) of the Rules issued under Section 220 of the Mysore Companies Regulation, 1895 in G. O. No.11660-69-J.1335 dated 26th April 1897 the Registrar was authorised to depute one of his clerks to inspect the companies.

VII. Inspection,- The Registrar will ascertain from time to time as may be necessary, either personally or by deputing one of his clerks, whether the provisions of Sections 63, 64, 65, 69, 74 and 79 of the Mysore Companies Regulation No.III of 1895 are duly observed.

Accordingly one of the clerks was being deputed as may be seen from a copy of this office Memo No.599 dated 27th December 1897. Rule 7 of the Rules made under Section 248 of the Mysore Companies Regulation VIII of 1917 published under Notification No.11002-I&C.6-18-21 dated 12th May 1919 is as follows:

Inspection etc., of registered offices.

The Registrar shall institute such enquiries and investigations at the offices of registered companies or otherwise as shall be necessary to obtain information or evidence respecting defaults or respect-any infractions of the law made by such companies in complying with any of the provisions of the Regulation.

The Corresponding Rules in Madras and Bombay are as follows:

BOMBAY.

"The Registrar shall institute such enquiries or make such investigations with any person, firm or company and in respect of any matter as may, in his opinion, be necessary for the proper performance of his duties and the administration of the Act".

MADRAS.

"Inspection of registered office of companies.- The offices of companies situated at the headquarter stations of the Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies or of Sub-Registrars of Assurances shall be visited by the Assistant Registrar or under his directiom by a Sub Registrar of Assurances for the purpose of seeing that the provisions of sections 72, 73 and 136 of the Act have been complied with. In the case of companies whose registered offices are situated in outlying villages information regarding compliance with those provisions shall be -- obtained by the Assistant Registrar from the District Magistrate. A list of the registered offices of the companies in outlying villages shall, for this purpose, be forwarded annually to the Magistrate of each district by the Assistant Registrar showing therein which companies should be visited twice during the year in order to ascertain that the provisions of Section 136 of the Act have been complied with. The District Magistrate shall also be informed from time to time of any alteration to be made in the list.-

(b) The Registrar shall arrange for similar visits to the offices of companies.

(3) It is found from the Annual Reports of Madras that the Companies in Madras are inspected by a clerk of the office of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, Madras, or of his -- Assistant, the mofussil companies being inspected by the Assistant

Assistant Registrars, Sub-Registrars and Magistrates.

(4) The offices of the companies in Bombay are visited by the Head clerk of the office of the Registrar of companies, Bombay, while those in mofussil are being visited by the Assistant Registrars.

II. As I have very onerous duties to attend to in the other Departments under my charge, it has not been found practicable for me to inspect all the indigenous companies as well as the foreign companies (which are 170 in number) once a year. The inspection of all the companies once a year is absolutely necessary especially as many of the persons entrusted with the management of companies are still ignorant of the provisions of the Companies Regulation. I am therefore of opinion that the time has arrived for the introduction of rule or a practice similar to the practice in Madras and Bombay. As the District Registrars of Assurances are Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock -- Companies in the Madras Presidency, I have the honour to request that the sanction of Government may kindly be obtained for the appointment of the Deputy Commissioners of Districts who are District Registrars of Assurances as Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies for the purpose of inspecting the companies within their districts, arrangements being made by me on the lines of the rules prevailing in Madras and Bombay for the inspection of the companies in the Bangalore City. As Deputy Commissioners are Ex-officio members of the Economic Conference the inspection of companies will enable them to have a first hand knowledge of the working of industrial and commercial associations in their Districts.

I have the honour to be,

B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Esq., B.A:, B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, Revenue Department, Bangalore.

S i r ,

With reference to your letter No.I.C.2232/J.S.25 dated 1st October 1925 requesting that the Deputy Commissioners may be consulted regarding their appointment as Ex-officio Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies for the purpose of inspecting the offices of companies in their Districts and calling for a further report embodying their views, I have the honour to state that all the Deputy Commissioners were consulted in the matter. The Deputy Commissioners of Mysore, Kadur, Tumkur, Kolar, Shimoga and Hassan Districts have stated that they have no objection to be appointed as Ex-officio Assistant Registrars. The Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District has stated that "the Sub Division officers may be given the inspection work and the Deputy Commissioners given general supervision to inspect whenever they can spare leisure time". If the inspection of the companies in Bangalore City is permitted to be arranged for on the lines prevailing in Madras and Bombay as recommended by me already (vide this office letter No.824 dated 7-8-1925) the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District will then have to inspect only 2 companies. He cannot, therefore, have any appreciable additional work and the delegation of inspection work to the Sub Divisional Officers is therefore unnecessary.

(2) Copies of letters Nos.64 and 72 dated 4th November and 28th November 1925 respectively received from the Deputy Commissioner of the Chitaldrug District are herein enclosed for perusal. The Deputy Commissioner in his letter dated 4th November has stated that Section 248(1) of the Mysore Companies Regulation appears to contemplate the appointment of Assistant Registrars mainly for the registration of Companies under the Regulation and not for the mere purpose of inspecting them and that if the functions of the Assistant Registrars have to be restricted only to the inspection of Companies with reference to certain specified points the Regulation itself may require due amendment. Section 248 (1) of the Regulation enacts that "the Government may appoint such registrars and assistant registrars as it thinks necessary for the registration of companies under this Regulation and may make rules with respect to their duties". Section 2 (15) of the said Regulation defines "the registrar" as "a registrar or assistant registrar performing under this Regulation the duty of registration of companies". But the expression "registration of companies" appears to require a broad interpretation as the Governor of Bombay in Council has appointed Sub Registrars as ex-officio Assistant Registrars of Companies under Section 248 (2) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (which corresponds to Section 248 (1) of the Mysore Companies Regulation) for the purpose of prosecuting defaulting companies (copies of the Rules enclosed).

(3) Further the Deputy Commissioner has stated that the inspection notes etc., made by the Sub Division officers, Sub Registrars or other subordinate officers may be ordered to pass through the Deputy Commissioners who may also be empowered to exercise general control over the work of such subordinate officers. He also seems to think that additional staff knowing accountancy and the details of the Regulation and the Rules made there-under may be required for assisting the Assistant Registrars in their inspection work. As there are only two indigenous companies and two foreign companies in the Chitaldrug District, the inspection of which does not take much time and is not likely to prove to be arduous, it can be attended to by the Deputy Commissioner himself with the assistance of the existing staff of the District Registrar's office.

(4) As regards the Deputy Commissioner's remark that it does not appear to be desirable to entrust the Deputy Commissioners with inspection work as some of the matters covered by the inspections may have to be dealt with by them in their capacity as District Magistrates, it may be stated that the Companies in the Madras Presidency are being inspected by the Magistracy also (Vide Madras Government Rule quoted in this office letter No.824 dated 7th August 1925 and the marginally noted extract from the Annual Report of the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, Madras, for the year 1924-25).

Visits to registered offices.

"The registered offices of all the working companies were duly visited in Madras by the members of my staff and in the muffassal by the registering officers and the magistracy"

(5) As six Deputy Commissioners have expressed themselves in favour of being appointed as Ex-officio Assistant Registrars, the objections of the Deputy Commissioners of the Bangalore and Chitaldrug Districts who have not much inspection work seems to be untenable. If necessary, the form of inspection may be simplified further. The District Registrars may therefore, be appointed as Ex-officio Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies as per my proposal already submitted in this office letter No.824 dated 7-8-1925. I may further be permitted to arrange for the inspection of Companies in the Bangalore City on the lines prevailing in Madras and Bombay.

Your most obedient servant,

Assistant Commissioner,

Copy of letter No.64 dated 4th November 1925 from the District Registrar, Chitaldrug District, to the ar of Joint Stock Companies in Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your letter No.1073-1080 dated h instant, requesting my views re the appointment of nt Registrars in the State as Ex-Officio Assistant ars of Joint Stock Companies under Section 248 (1) of ore Companies Regulation etc., I have the honour to hat Section 248 (1) of the Mysore Companies Regulation to contemplate the appointment of Assistant Regis- ainly for "the Registration of companies under the ion" and not for the mere purpose of inspecting them. refore. the functions of Assistant Registrars have to be restricted only to the inspection of companies "with reference to certain specified points" as stated in your letter the Regulation may itself require due amendment.

2. I understand that under circular No.2099-2106 date 11th March 1905 from the Inspector General of Registration, special Sub Registrars of Taluks have to conduct periodical inspections of Joint Stock Companies within their respective jurisdictions to find out whether certain provisions of the Companies Regulation are being duly observed and to send up a report to you in a form prescribed. I do not know what additional points are proposed to be covered in the inspections of Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies and I am not therefore, in a position to form any idea as to additional staff requiring technical accounts knowledge and the details of the Regulation and Rules on the subject may be required for the purpose, and how far the measure proposed is likely to prove useful to Deputy Commissioners in their capacity as members of the Economic Conference. I may, however, state that in view of the multifarious duties already devolving on the Deputy Commissioner and demanding his close attention, it may not be desirable to burden him with the responsibility of making any elaborate inspections of accounts etc., and that if such inspections are necessary in the interests of the working of the companies, why that duty may not, under existing conditions, be entrusted to Sub Division Officers under the general control of the Deputy Commissioners is a point well worthy of consideration.

Copy of letter No.72[illegible] dated 26th November 1925 from the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies in Mysore, Bangalore.

Adverting to your letter No.1179 dated the 13th instant requesting my final opinion in the matter of appointing District Registrars in Mysore as ex-officio Assistant Registrars of Joint Stock Companies etc., I have the honour to state that several of the questions mentioned in the copy of the inspection form can be correctly answered only by a reference to the returns and records received and filed in your office and one cannot be certain that the questions put regarding all the legal and administrative matters referred to in the form can be properly investigated in a brief space of time.

2. The knowledge of the details of the working of Banks and other concerns registered under the Companies Regulation may not by itself enable the Deputy Commissioners as members of the Economic Conference to suggest measures for the development of Industries and Commerce in the State. Moreover as some of the matters covered by these inspections will probably have to be dealt with by the Deputy Commissioners in their capacity as District Magistrates it does not appear to be desirable to tack on the work of inspection to them. But with a view to afford Deputy Commissioners an opportunity of knowing how the existing concerns in their districts are working, the notes of inspections made by Sub Divisional Officers, Sub Registrars or other subordinate officers deputed to inspect the companies and the correspondence relating thereto may be ordered to pass through them and they may also be empowered to exercise general control over the work of such subordinate officers.

Assistant Commissioner,
for Registrar of Joint Stock companies absent from head-quarters.
